

House Resolution No. 2596

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who have dedicated their time and energy to ensuring that today's students obtain the knowledge, skills, and experiences necessary to become lifelong learners and future societal leaders; and

Whereas, Janeane Richards of Poplar Bluff has attained considerable distinction as a computer lab instructor at the Fifth and Sixth Grade Center in the Poplar Bluff R-I School District which educates more than forty-five hundred students through the expertise of nearly three hundred fifty certified staff in nine institutions; and

Whereas, Janeane Richards will bring her educational labors to a close on May 20, 2005, in retirement after seven years of service; and

Whereas, Janeane Richards previously worked in the Poplar Bluff R-I School District as a paraprofessional remedial teacher for twenty-five years; and

Whereas, Janeane Richards also deserves mention of her participation in Bible education work and her membership with Jehovah's Witness; and

Whereas, Janeane Richards is justifiably proud to be known as the beloved wife of Roosevelt:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously to applaud the long, productive career enjoyed by Janeane Richards with the Poplar Bluff R-I School District and to convey to her this legislative body's most heartfelt best wishes as she partakes of the special opportunities and pleasures traditionally associated with the golden years of retirement; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution in honor of Janeane Richards of Poplar Bluff, Missouri.
